WHAT'S THE PLAN?

FINDING YOUR END USE

10:00 – 16:00

25/04/2019

Somerset Rural Life Museum

Are you a charity or social enterprise interested in saving heritage at risk in the South West? Share your experiences and be inspired.

WHAT IS THE EVENT?

Networking, talks and discussion to support community organisations. This event is a space to share problems, solutions and everything inbetween.

WHO SHOULD COME?

Open to all, of any experience level. HTN area events bring together organisations, across the grassroots sector, regenerating historic buildings for exciting new purposes.

WHAT TO EXPECT?

The day focuses on the questions:

How can we better network heritage regeneration in the South West?

What's the end use for our historic buildings?

OUTCOMES:

- Improved understanding of heritage projects
- Better forward planning for new and existing projects
- Better connections with projects in your area
- Awareness of new ideas and approaches across the sector

“ Give yourself that time outside of the office to have ideas! ”

10:00 - Arrival, tea and coffee

10:30 - Updates and news from members and attendees

11:30 - Future planning; growing your network in the South West

12:30 - Somerset BPT on their work in the County and future projects with a look at a difficult building

1:30 - Networking lunch

2:15 - Rural Life Museum tour – a building restored through Somerset BPT with the end user in partnership from the outset

4:00 - Finish

TOOLKIT

Heritage Trust Network is the membership organisation for communities saving heritage at risk. We empower organisations to achieve incredible projects, bringing new life to historic buildings.

We support in four key ways:

- regional and national events keeping members up to date on best practice
- peer to peer learning and member partnership working
- digital Toolkit covering every project stage, from start up to management
- campaigning to enable better opportunity for regeneration.

It is the energy, enthusiasm and experience of over 250 members that gives the vital grassroots movement its voice, capacity and skills to save heritage across the UK.
